Thursday night might have seen one of the biggest film event's in WA's history, the Australian premiere of surf film Drift, shot in the South West, at Caves House in Yallingup, but one person missing from the red-carpet festivities was the film's star, Rockingham-raised actor Sam Worthington.

Despite missing the premiere, AAA Weekend can now reveal that Worthington is due to head back to WA next month to launch the film to local audiences.

The Avatar star will be in Perth for a special advance screening at Event Cinemas in Innaloo on April 19, where he will be joined by fellow Drift stars Xavier Samuel (Twilight: Eclipse) and Myles Pollard for a Q&A session with moviegoers.

Tickets to the screening are on sale now through Event Cinemas' website.

All those who purchase tickets online will go into the draw to win a meet and greet with Worthington.
